Fun Expedition Entertains the Entire Family in Johnson City

JOHNSON CITY, Tenn.—What’s a family vacation without entertainment, food and fun for every member of the family, young or old? In Johnson City, Tenn., visitors can experience a one-of-a-kind thrill at Fun Expedition, an indoor/outdoor mecca of entertainment ranging from miniature golf and laser tag to bumper cars, go carts and batting cages.

“Fun Expedition is a great family stop when visiting Johnson City. It gives everyone the chance to relax, play some games and eat,” said Brenda Whitson, executive director of the Johnson City Convention and Visitors Bureau. “And the best part is that Fun Expedition truly has something for every member of the family.”

Fun Expedition has a wide variety of sports attractions. The 18 holes of indoor mini golf are divided into nine holes of scenic golf and finish with nine holes under the black light course. Mom and Dad can challenge the kids to a hitting competition at the batting cages, which are divided into softball and baseball, and can accommodate any age or skill level with adjustable speeds and height settings.

The state-of-the art laser tag arena allows two teams of 10 players each to compete under black lights, music and fog in the multi-level arena. The climbing wall, a twenty-foot indoor climbing wall, offers four varying levels of difficulty to accommodate any climber, as well as trained staff members for assistance. Families can also challenge and compete at the bowling alley or arcade, or on the bumper cars or go-karts, both indoor and outdoor. Family members can either double up on the go-carts, or ride individually, and the bumper cars can handle 360-degree spins and quick directional maneuvers.

“Fun Expedition is the perfect place for families to engage in some friendly competition and test each other’s athletic skills,” said Whitson. “And since there are numerous activities inside as well as outdoors, it doesn’t matter what the weather is doing—you can go anytime.”

Fun Expedition also accommodates the younger members of the family with a toddler play area that houses bounce areas, slides and tunnels.

And for the hungry members of the family, the Boxcar Buffet offers all you can eat buffets full of pizzas, deserts, salads and pastas.

Fun Expedition is located at 2805 North Roan Street in Johnson City. For more information, please call (423) 929-2386, or visit www.funexpedition.com.
